Traveling Details: How to reach the conference location

Getting to Utrecht from Schiphol Airport
You will have to go to Utrecht Central Station. There are trains leaving from Schiphol Airport every half hour at 14 and 44 minutes past every hour. You will not have to change trains; it will take approximately half an hour to reach Utrecht.

The price for a one-way ticket to Utrecht Central Station is 7,60 euro. Make sure you buy a ticket before entering the train. Tickets are not sold on the train, and you will be fined for 35 euros if you travel without a valid ticket. Tickets can be bought from the vending machines located above the departure platforms, or from the main ticket office.

Getting to University College Utrecht Campus (Conference Location)

From Utrecht Centraal-Railwaystation:
Take bus (line 4, direction Fockema Andrealaan). Exit at the Prins Hendriklaan bus stop, follow the Prins Hendriklaan (streetname) in the direction of the underpass,* shortly after which you will see the entrance to the University College campus on your right.

* TOURISTIC NOTE: Right before the underpass on the left side of the road you will find the Rietveld-Schröder house, a famous architectural work from 1924 placed on the World Heritage List by UNESCO in 2000 as ‘an important and unique icon in Western architectural history and a masterpiece of human creativity.’

Below you will find a map of the Campus and its surroundings. Please note that the only entrance to the Campus is from the Prins Hendriklaan.

Additional useful links:
For Dutch trains: http://www.ns.nl/
For more detailed information on reaching the conference location: http://www.ucu.uu.nl/visiting.phtml